

A lonely doll helps a child adjust to a blended family in the first of a charming series about library toys and the children who borrow them, written by Newbery Honoree Cynthia Lord.

HC: 978-1-5362-0778-1 • Also available as an e-book

Use these discussion questions in your classroom to engage more deeply with the story.

Ivy Lost and Found

- Do you have a toy you love the way Anne loved Ivy when she was a kid? Would it make a good Book Buddy?
- What kind of adventure would you want that toy to go on?
- Why do you think it is hard for Ivy to give up on being Anne's doll? Ultimately, though, she is happy to have made new friends! Why is it important that she move on and establish new relationships?
- Neither Ivy nor Fern wants to spend time together at first. How do they end up helping each other through difficult times?
- Do you think it was important for Fern to let her dad and new family know how she was feeling?

